BADLY MIXED.

Court Called Upon to Settle Mixed Family Relations.

In the case of Aliza Frazier against B. F. Frazier, for divorce, a peculiar state of marital relations seems to exist.

The woman began suit and was granted a certain amount of alimony pending the hearing of the case says the Tribune. The defendant then came into court with the claim that the woman was not his wife at all as she had a husband, Nelson Cotley, in the Toledo State hospital, from whom she had never been divorced. This put a different phase on the alimony question and the judge was wondering what he would do about the matter, when the woman came back with a reply declaring that Frazier was her legal husband as Cately, at the time she married him, had a wife living, from whom he had never been divorced. A copy of the court record in Lucas county which shows that the Cately-Frazier woman had been given a judgment for alimony against Cately, is among the interesting things filed here in connection with the case.

NEW BRAKE

Which Will Prove a Great Success.

The JOURNAL representative enjoyed a ride on a belt line car, Thursday, which had been fitted up with a new air brake, the invention of J. B. Denman, son of Manager Denman of the belt line.

The brake is a new departure and differs radically from any other brake ever constructed.

There is no waste of electric current in working the brake, which is attached to the axle of the wheel in such manner that in stopping the car sufficient air is pumped to make the next stop.

It worked like a charm, being perfectly noiseless and reliable.

A company known as the J. B. Denman Air Brake Company has been formed, consisting of the inventor and a number of the railway employees who will put the new device upon the market and, we believe, will make good money on it.

SEEDS AND HOGS.

Our Washington correspondent says: The Department of Agriculture has completed plans for the annual seed distribution throughout the country. Despite the fact that double the usual amount of seeds is to be sent out this winter, the preliminary work is advanced much further than in past years.

There will be 37,000,000 packets of seed distributed, comprising both vegetables and flowers. The Department will begin sending out the seeds about December 1, and most of them will be furnished through Senators and Representatives.

The humble American hog was exported last year by the United States to a value exceeding by more than two million dollars that of the iron and steel exports, of which so much has been said. He furnishes the largest single item of export, amounting to nearly $120,000,000 a year, an increase of $35,000,000 in the past ten years. The future of this mighty industry, if not threatened, may be considered at least somewhat disturbed by the wonderful growth of its Danish congener, exports from Denmark having risen from one to eight millions annually in the past ten years and being still rapidly increasing. Most of these exports go to Germany, which already frowns upon American pork, and is inclined to still further discriminate against it.

GLYCERINE FACTORY

Goes Up With 40 Quarts of the Explosive.

The B. G. Glycerine Co.'s factory near Rudolph, went up last Saturday night at about 10:30, totally wrecking the building and machinery, says the Tribune.

The factory at the time, contained but 40 quarts of the explosive and the magazine, about 400 feet south of the factory was stocked with 600 quarts.

The magazine, however, did not explode.

There is as yet, no known cause for the explosion.

There were no fatalities, so far as discovered, and no one is known to have been near the factory at the time it exploded.

One of the strange things about the explosion is the fact that the magazine with 600 quarts, did not explode from the shock.

A number of theories are advanced as to the cause of the explosion, one being that some of the safe crackers who are so busy about the country just now, went there and after getting what they wanted, either set something on fire, upon leaving, or fixed a fuse to set it off. Several times during the past few months magazines have been entered, apparently by safe crackers, and small quantities of the explosive taken away.

The damage to the factory will aggregate probably $300.

TOLEDO AMUSEMENTS.

"Prince Otto" at the Lyceum.

For three days, commencing Thursday matinee, Oct. 31, E. D. Stair & Geo. Nicolai present the brilliant young romantic actor, Mr. Harry Glazier, in a dramatization by Otis Skinner of Robert Louis Stevenson's beautiful story "Prince Otto." The entire New York production, scenery, costumes and paraphernalia exactly the same which was used during the run at Wallack's theatre. Thirty-five people in the cast. Two car loads of scenery. Best reserved seats for matinees Thursday and Saturday 25c.

Ed. F. Rush's "Victoria Burlesques" now on their third annual tour, will be the attraction at Burts for three days, commencing Thursday, Oct. 31. The great success of this production has caused the management to add many expensive novelties. The scenery and costumes are entirely new, and the twenty chorus girls are said to be pretty and sweet voiced. The curtain raiser is termed "High School Girls," it is a hilarious affair with but little plot, plenty of music, witicism, song and dance—general jollification. The first part will be followed by an olio of vaudeville turns. The closing burlesque is called, "Slumming in Chinatown," showing a genuine opinion den.

"Brother Officers" at the Valentine.

The popular actor, Howard Gould, supported by an excellent company, will be seen at the Valentine, Friday and Saturday matinee, Nov. 1 and 2, in "Brother Officers," the play which ran last season at the Empire theatre, New York. "Brother Officers," like "Caste," has a military flavor, deals with social contracts and might almost take Robertson's "True Hearts are More than Coronets," for its motto.

Mr. Gould plays the part of Lieut. John Hinds, a manly, good-hearted young fellow, who has been promoted from the ranks and who finds himself suddenly set down in the companionship of the officers of a crack regiment. He has sprung from the gutter and for gallant conduct has been gazetted into the First Lancers, every officer of the regiment being a swell of swells.

The young lieutenant has reached the goal of his ambition only to find that he is dreadfully out of place, and that, while he has "the feelings" of a gentleman, he has neither the manners nor the speech of one. He is a rough diamond that sorely needs polishing. He begs of one of his brother officers, Lieut. Pleydell, whose life he once saved, and who feels eternally grateful to him, to show him "how to be a gentleman."

The companionship of this sterling, whole-souled fellow makes better men of more than one of his comrades, and they nearly all "give him a hand" and promise to "lick him into shape" socially.

Being one of the Lancers, the doors of certain fashionable houses are open to him, and the good fellow falls hopelessly in love with Lady Royden, whom Pleydell himself hopes to marry. Various threads are woven into the plot, and Hinds eventually called upon—he believes—to make a great sacrifice for the woman he loves.
